

Francesca Blackard Kelly McClure Georganna Simpson

100% FAMILY LAW

Tough. Tireless. Tenacious. No truer words could be spoken of Kelly McClure, CEO of McClure Law Group, and Francesca Blackard, a Managing Partner at the law firm. These women are a force to be reckoned with both in and outside of the courtroom, and they will stop at nothing to reach their client's goals. Available around the clock and passionately devoted to those they serve, their commitment to their clients is unmatched. Continuously praised by clients for the "McClure White Glove Approach," they carefully and confidently guide their clients through what is unarguably one of the most difficult times of their lives whether that be in a divorce, a custody dispute, or any other family law matter.

CEO, Kelly McClure, has over 25 years of legal experience and is a pillar in the family law community. A D- Best Hall-of-Famer, having Kelly by your side is like having a secret weapon, you can walk fearlessly into a courtroom and tackle any challenge before you- no matter how large or complex your estate may be. Her out-of-the-box thinking sets her light years apart from other attorneys in the field and more times than not, resolves her cases without the necessity of trial. However, when trial is necessary, you will not find another partner more prepared than Kelly. She is intimately familiar with all aspects of her cases and exhausts all resources to provide you the best possible result. A mother to four boys, and wife to a successful civil attorney, her passion for law has rubbed off on three of her four boys, who are her pride and joy - two of which practice alongside her at the firm.

Managing Partner, Francesca Blackard, has a dedication to her clients that shines in the courtroom, where she advocates their positions to the fullest extent possible. Preparation for hearings and trial is of utmost importance to Francesca and she has been successful in court where victory seemed impossible. When hope seems lost, Francesca enthusiastically fights for her clients to get them what they deserve. A mother to young twins, she understands the impact divorce has on children, and is devoted to protecting your most prized possessions. Born and raised in Dallas, she is actively involved in the community, volunteering for both schools she attended in the area - Christ the King School and Ursuline Academy.

Together, Kelly McClure and Francesca Blackard lead a team of exceptionally skilled attorneys with a variety of expertises to address your specific family law needs. Whether dealing with divorce proceedings, child custody disputes, complex property division, crafting pre- and post-marital agreements, addressing grandparents' rights, surrogacy issues, and other family-related matters, they have your bases covered. The McClure team has litigation experience serving counties across Texas, providing comprehensive protection for families and their assets. In the event of an appeal, there is no better attorney in the state to provide appellate advice on your matter than Georganna Simpson, who provides an unparalleled wealth of experience and knowledge in the appellate law arena and protects the procedural integrity of each case at the firm.

Consistently recognized for their purpose-driven and pragmatic handling of each case, McClure, Blackard and Simpson's dedication to their profession has earned them numerous awards and consistent acknowledgment as industry leaders, with D Magazine repeatedly recognizing them as Best Lawyers in Dallas. McClure, honored as a Hall of Fame Lawyer by D Magazine, holds Board Certification in Family Law from the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. McClure Law Group, rated as a Best Law Firm 2025 by Best Lawyers, is your go-to team for all divorce and family law requirements.

Their consistent recognition speaks volumes about the caliber of professionals McClure and Blackard are - they leverage their deep understanding of family dynamics to assist clients in redefining family roles and sustaining relationships after divorce has affected their families. They genuinely prioritize the well-being of clients and their children, compassionately guiding them through all facets of their family law matters.

Being a client of McClure Law Group is like being a part of their family and you will feel their unfaltering presence as they protect you, your children and your financial assets.
