

If you need help finding the way out,
We know Family Law inside and out...

Choose your exit strategy wisely.

Families choose McClure Law Group when they need the expertise of a boutique law firm 100% focused on family law. Founded by Kelly McClure, an attorney with 25 plus years experience in tax and family law, McClure Law Group guides high-profile executives and stay-at-home spouses, professional athletes and celebrities through divorce, complex property division, custody agreement, modification and paternity issues to arrive at the best possible outcome.

Kelly McClure is a passionate advocate of the collaborative approach to lessen the emotional and financial damage courtroom battles can bring. She is Board Certified in Family Law, and is recognized for her leadership repeatedly – earning D Magazine’s Best Family Lawyer nine times among numerous other honors.

When it becomes clear that collaboration is not an option, and litigation is required, McClure Law Group’s talented attorneys are tenacious and pragmatic – a powerful presence in the courtroom.

Each member of the McClure legal team shares important core values – a drive to achieve the absolute best results, compassion for safeguarding critical relationships, and meticulous stewardship of time and assets that could be drained in lengthy proceedings.
